North Wales Rover

Combined bus-rail ticket

North Wales Rover is the excellent value ticket that allows travel by bus and train around North Wales. You can buy the ticket for 2, 3, or all zones. There are 8 zones, which are mainly based on the borders of the counties in the region. The counties of Anglesey, Conwy, Denbighshire, and Flintshire are represented as individual zones, but Gwynedd is split into 2 separate zones, and Wrexham and Chester is one zone.

There is also a zone that covers the routes between Machynlleth and Aberystwyth (Ceredigion North). All trains and most buses are included in the validity of the tickets within the relevant zones. Certain extra services are included as shown on the zone map. Tickets are valid all day until 0429.

Where can I buy a North Wales Rover?

Tickets are available from staffed railway stations, and train conductors and bus drivers of participating companies. The all zones ticket cannot be purchased on buses. However a single journey bus ticket purchased on a bus to enable travel to the nearest railway station can be used as part payment for an all zones ticket.

Where can I use the North Wales Rover?

Dependent on the zones purchased the ticket is valid on all trains and most buses operating in North Wales. It is also valid on rail (subject to the correct zone being purchased), to/from Chester City Centre, Chester Station (not valid on railway station link bus service), Ellesmere Port, ticket is not valid (transferable) for use on bus services serving Bidston, Upton, Heswall and Neston stations, * bus services 5 and 5 only, Machynlleth, Whitchurch, Gobowen and Oswestry. Tickets including Zone X are also valid between Machynlleth and Aberystwyth on bus services X28, T2 and train, whilst All Zone tickets can also be used on train between Machynlleth, Welshpool, Shrewsbury and Gobowen, and bus service T12 between Machynlleth, Welshpool and Oswestry.

So much choice of where to go

The choice of where to go in North Wales is almost limitless. Explore the vast Snowdonia National Park, the Berwyn Mountains including the Clwydian Range or the wild and mountainous Lleyn Peninsula. Go bird watching in the Mawddach Estuary. View mighty castles such as Denbigh, Conwy, Caernarfon, Harlech, and Beaumaris. Or perhaps your preference is a seaside resort in which case head towards Prestatyn, Rhyl, Llandudno, Pwllheli, Porthmadog, Barmouth, Borth or Aberystwyth to name just a few! Walk the city walls of Chester and/or town of Conwy, follow the town trail in Dolgellau or Llangollen. Or just go for the ride and enjoy the views! You'll definitely enjoy travelling on one of the many steam railways (a 20% reduction on ordinary fares is offered on the Ffestiniog and Welsh Highland Railway network for holders of an all zones North Wales Rover Ticket).
